

The 2006 Sallie Southall Cotten Award

The 2006 Sallie Southall Cotten Award was presented to Inez Fridley for her leadership in preserving Greenville's historic assets. As a City Councilmember between 1985 and 2001, Ms. Fridley helped establish the Historic Preservation Commission and consistently supported efforts to designate and preserve the College View Historic District. Ms. Fridley served on the Main Street Committee responsible for removing the pedestrian mall and restoring the historic Evans Street retail corridor in downtown Greenville. She has worked with numerous other commissions and organizations including ReLeaf, to protect, enhance and promote Greenville's culture & heritage.
